Jeffer Course Website FAQs Version 20220925.pdf;

Good evening,

My name is Jeff Anderson. I am your instructor for the next 12 weeks of spring quarter 2023.

Please feel free to call me Jeff. I much prefer that name, if you're comfortable with it.

Our first in-class meeting will be on Wed April 12, 2023 at 1:30pm in room 5611.

The reason for this change in schedule is that I have been sick for the entire spring break. Because of lingering symptoms, I am officially canceling our first in-class meeting for Monday 4/10/2023. Instead, I plan to be back in action for our first day of class on Wednesday 4/12/2023 from 1:30pm – 3:45pm in room 5611.

During this week, I encourage you to show up on campus early to get your desired parking spot, get to class on time, and get situated.

As a reminder, here is more information about our class:

It is a pleasure to have you in this class. I know you can learn anything you want to. I plan to dedicate myself to helping you create a significant learning experience in our class. I have a feeling you are going to rock this class. I hope we can create an experience full of joy, curiosity, and intrigue. I am excited to serve you.

See you on Wednesday April 12, 2023 at 1:30pm in room 5611.

Best regards,

Jeff

PS. Attached to this email is a document that describes a more about our course homepages. I do not use CANVAS and, in the attachment, I describe this policy in detail. I welcome your questions, concerns, and comments during our first in-class meeting.

PPS. At this exact moment (Sun 4/9/2023 @ 8:37pm) our homepage is out-of-date. I plan to post updates throughout the first few weeks of the quarter. I'll mention these updates in class and keep you posted on this work. If possible, I kindly request that you minimize your emails to me. I will do a lot of work to get ready for our first in-class meeting and do not plan to have bandwidth to respond to emails.
